CHAPTER 4 Job Order Costing (JOC)

4.0 Introduction

4.1 Learning Outcome 1: To distinguish between JOC and PC and to identify companies that would use each costing method

4.2 Learning Outcome 2: Identify the documents used in a JOC system

4.3 Learning Outcome 3: Compute predetermined overhead rate (POR) and explain why estimated overhead cost (rather than actual overhead cost) is used in JOC

4.4 Learning Outcome 4: Understand the flow of costs in a JOC system and prepare appropriate journal entries to record cost (figures are created in the illustration below (Y Company) to enhance understanding)

4.5 Learning Outcome 5: Apply overhead cost to work in process (WIP) using predetermined overhead rate
